

With more than 600 children in need, the best way to help is by adopting a child's Wish List.
Visit saintlukeskc.org/angel for more information.
You can also help by donating most-needed items, stocking stuffers, or wrapping supplies.

Most-Needed Items for foster care, residential, and home-based programs

All Ages

Arts/craft supplies

*Gel pens, marker sets, Play-Doh
Card stock, scrapbook, and construction paper
Embroidery floss, origami paper, etc.*

Board and card games (all ages)

Sports equipment (basketball, soccer, kickball, football)

Books (all ages, especially teen book series)

Puzzles (toddler to 300-piece only)

Toiletry Items (all ages, full size)

Deodorant, body wash, shampoo, lotions, etc.

Ethnic hair products and hair gel

Underwear (toddler to adult sizes)

Coats (all sizes, especially teen/adult)

Pajamas (shirts or pants)

Child sizes: 5 – 14

Adult sizes: S-M-L-XL

Teens and Young Adults (13 – 20 yrs. old)

Journals or sketch pads (non-spiral)

Water bottles (transparent, plastic)

Sweatpants and joggers (size S to XXL)

Children (5 – 12 yrs. old)

Stuffed animals (small/medium)

Action figures

Legos/building blocks

Hot Wheels

Infants/Toddlers (newborn – 4 yrs. old)

Learning toys (newborn – 3 years)

Baby dolls (age 4 and under)

Diapers (all sizes)

Pull-Ups (3T – 4T)

Baby Wipes

Teethers, bottles, and sippy cups

Stocking Stuffers for Residential Teens*

Small Play-Doh or Silly Putty

Water Bottles (plastic transparent)

Teen/adult coloring books

Stress balls or pop-it fidgets

Fun socks (adult sizes, any gender)

Small journals or puzzle books (non-spiral)

Gel pens

Lip balm/gloss

Playing cards and card games

Fun-size candy, fruit snacks, etc.

* Stocking stuffers are for residential teens only. We do not need stocking stuffers for younger children.
There are strict safety guidelines, such as no glass, wire, etc., so please donate only items listed above.

Wrapping Supplies

Gift tags, boxes, gift bags, tissue paper, and bows (we have plenty of wrapping paper)

Please deliver by Nov. 24 – Dec. 8. All donations should be new and unwrapped.

Thanks for your support!